MR. STEVENS

DEDICATION

Mr. Robert M. Bruno

*Thanks, thanks to thee, my worthy friend
For the lesson thou has taught.*

At the end of this school season we will say good-bye after four years of close work. We both entered high school as freshmen—you as a new teacher and our class as newcomers to the world of high school. Your long hours spent instructing in the classroom, decorating for dances, and participating in school activities will not be quickly forgotten. We know now that you can never be repaid for your spent hours. We just hope that you will receive this dedication with as much joy as we feel in giving it to you—Mr. Bruno.

GOFFSTOWN HIGH SCHOOL

*In the one state of ours that is a shire
There is a District Schoolhouse I admire—
As much as anything for situation.
There are few institutions standing higher.*

The 1967 Nisa'tin Staff

Row 1, D. Byron, G. Goff, A. Howe, Assistant Editor, D. Sadler, Editor, J. Clark, A. Lindsay, P. Martel. Row 2, M. Fellows, R. Dunn, B. MacGregor, S. Buzzo, K. Durmer, J. Pappas, F. Hecker, J. Shreve, L. Croteau, P. Miles, D. Goff. Row 3, S. Robinson, J. LaMontagne, M. Whipple, I. Luscombe, J. Ducharme, B. Beetz, D. Mace, S. Chamberlain, J. Igneczi, L.

Boisvert, D. Gove, C. Mudge.

Under the watchful eye of Miss Bradbury, the Nisa'tin staff worked long hours to put out an exceptional book. Often times the lights were still on in Room 112 at six o'clock and any observer could see Miss Bradbury and staff members still busy at work. If the hours spent can alone guarantee a good book, then this yearbook cannot be topped. But the ingenuity of the section heads can't be ignored either.

Because we are New Englanders in a small New Hampshire town, we chose selections of Robert Frost's works as the central theme to our yearbook. These selections are applicable to our life in school and provide a solid unity to the 1967 edition of the Nisa'tin.

The surest thing there is is we are riders.

And though none too successful at it, guiders.

Through everything presented, land and tide.

And now the very air of what we ride.

There is our wildest mount—a headless horse.

But though it runs unbridled off its course.

And all our blandishments would seem defied.

We have ideas yet that we haven't tried.

The Road We Travelled

"And miles to go before I sleep. And miles to go before I sleep."

Robert Frost

As freshmen in the fall of 1963 we certainly did have miles to go. For two years we'd longingly looked out of Mrs. Fottler's and Mr. Smith's windows toward the high school, anticipating the day when we'd enter as mighty freshmen. We entered, all right, but mighty . . . ?

The whole class somehow managed to survive the degrading signs, the orange crepe paper, and the life savers on toothpicks at freshmen initiation.

I don't think any of us will ever forget those earth science classes with Mr. Zong, 'the young man on the move.' Neither have any of us ever shaken so hard as we did that first year in Mrs. Zeller's French and Latin classes. Of course, not to be left out in our freshmen recollections is our first taste of algebra with Mr. Bruno and that last period civics class (?) with Mrs. Lyons.

It was during our freshmen year that a national tragedy occurred. President John F. Kennedy was assassinated in Dallas, Texas. Our class officers John Clark, Judy Sharren, and Deb Goff headed the class in expressing our sorrow to the late president's widow. In appreciation for our thoughtfulness Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy sent our class a note, now one of Goffstown High School's most highly valued possessions.

Although none of our boys very actively represented our class on the soccer team, Joe Sink, Jeff Smith, Bruce Garfield, Bob McDougall, Kris Gordan, Chuck Fred, and Whitey starred on Mr. Foley's undefeated J.V. basketball team. Wendy, Shirley, Judy, Laurie, and Nancy cheered our boys on with one of G.H.S.'s peppiest cheering squads. The girls' team won only two games that year, but that was simply because Cathy, Adria, Brenda, Sharren, and Adreanne weren't on the first string.

Our class had a great deal of dramatic potential. Brad Adria—who made the finals—and Marion participated in their first speech tournament, and many more freshmen made the cast for Mrs. Zeller's spring production Juliet the Wind.

The student council chose "Snow Mist" for the theme of the winter carnival, and although we didn't sweep the carnival, we did participate in all the events and had some great water fights while sculpting our penguin.

We ended our first year in high school with a unique Sadie Hawkins dance. We had successfully traveled our first mile.

We entered our sophomore year glad that we finally had someone to look down on. We thought our journey might be easier in 1964-65, but Mr. Sweet, Mr. Foley, and Mrs. Danos showed us the folly of our thinking and how silly sophomores can sometimes be. Mr. Nicknair never did sufficiently recover from those early morning geometry classes to face us in our junior year with Algebra II.

This year our class made a good showing in athletics. The soccer team included Chucky, Dave Benson, Pete Martel, and Kris, and the J.V. basketball team had only three players who weren't from the mighty class of '67, which we so fittingly called ourselves. The girls had a good season, helped out by Adria, Cathy, Nancy, Heather, Deb, Sadler, and Christine. Wendy and Diane Byron did a fine job as varsity cheerleaders to cheer the varsity into the finals at Portsmouth, where Coach K's boys finished second in the 1965 N.H. Class M. competition.

In dramatics too the sophomore class left memories to be proud of. The cast of The Nut Children—which included everything from a green witch Adria to a talking rabbit John Clark and those behind the scenes who built a delicious gingerbread house did an outstanding job on the sophomore play. Fred and Greg had the honor of representing our talented class in the much acclaimed play Dairy of Anne Frank which won the right to represent N. H. in the New England Drama Festival. Goffstown's spring production Tom Jones was a riotous success with many of the Class of '67 included in the outstanding cast of thirty-three.

Although once again we didn't win the winter carnival we put up a hardy fight with five out of the six princess finalists headed by Adria, princess of "Peppermint Stick Parade."

Spring came and with it the spring sports. Dave Benson and Bruce Garfield represented us on Coach DeRocher's bench. Mr. Bruno headed the new tennis team in 1965. Out of the seven players five Jim McKenna, Whitey, Kris, Leon, and Fred were from our class.

Our officers Danny, Greg, Pete Martel, and Sharron led us one more mile down the road.

Our junior year 1965-66 was to say the least individualistic. Brad journeyed to Epinal, France where he studied for the first two terms. Fred was fortunate enough to be one of the 16 N. H. students chosen to travel in Europe for 3 weeks and John Clark, Kris, and Sue Kilam went to New Mexico for professional dramatic training. Behind many of these endeavors lay the efforts of Mrs. Zeter our awe inspiring language teacher and director.

This was a year of change too. For the first time we were actually upper classmen. For the first time we entered the new high school on Wallace Road. Bob McDougall, Whitey, Bruce Garfield, and Jim McKenna played varsity ball for the first time. Deb Sadler, Adria, and Cathy Mudge had to break in their new coach Miss Reed which they very successfully did with a long string of victories cheered on by Laurie, Adreanne, Judy, Sharron and Diane Byron.

Our junior year was a time of excitement. We very nearly won the Winter Carnival. Swiss Fantasy reigned over by our lovely queen JoAnn Shreve. We swept the toboggan races and did well in a new event called broom hockey which Linda Tower won't easily forget. It was only in the snow (slush?) shoeing races that the seniors gained enough points to put them in the lead. There was more excitement with the junior class's presentation of The Long Winter and the N. H. Drama Festival winner Tuck's Night. John Clark and Adria were placed on the All State Cast and Danny won a place on the All N. E. Cast in Boston. In the speech tournament Sue Kilam represented GHS in All State Competition.

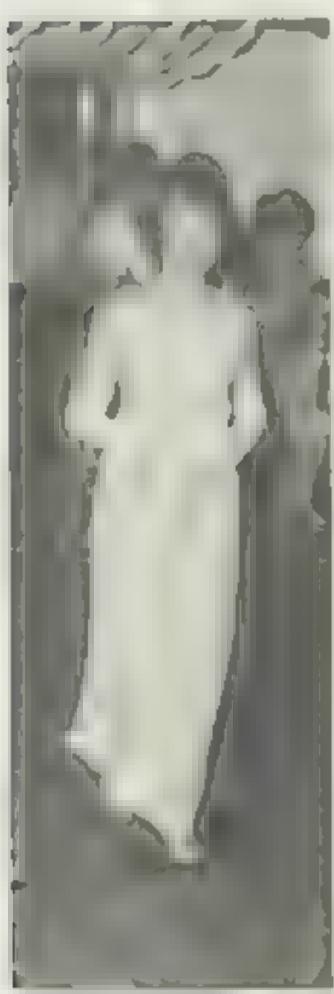

Our junior year holds very special memories too. December brought our class rings and May our Junior Prom. Mr. Bruno and our class officers Adria, Greg, Laurie and Pete along with our head decorator Diane Gove turned the gym into a pink and white fantasy complete with trees, a pond, and an actual waterfall. Judy was singled out to reign over our very successful Prom Rhodora. We then breezed (?) through finals, thinking we had only one more mile to go.

Our senior year 1966-67 brought certain realizations. We'd struggled through the first 3 years and with Mr. Lemery's help we made it through the 4th. For 12 years we'd waited for June 1967, but it's not as we'd expected. Graduation isn't the end of our journey it's just the beginning just down the street. We have a long, long way to go yet. We don't yet know whether the staff which each of us has carved these past years will be sturdy and support us over our individual paths or whether it will be too weak and break under our weight. What we do realize is that we have a long road to travel and miles to go before we sleep and miles to go before we sleep.

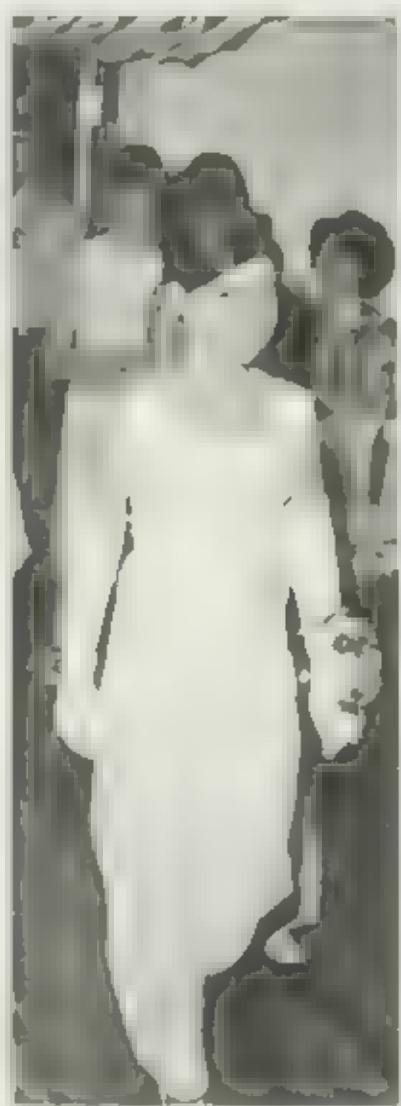

As Juniors we took the theme for our prom from Ralph Waldo Emerson's poem Rhodora. We decorated around the central idea of a many shaded pink flower with maroon, pink and white crepe paper forming a canope de beaute over the dancer's heads. Watertall and waterwheel scenes added to the atmosphere of a woodland wild floral setting.

The night of enjoyment was successfully climaxed by the crowning of our queen Judy Milne and the selection of her two aids JoAnn Shreve and Rita Hebert.

DAR

Adria Howe was chosen by the senior-class and the faculty to receive the DAR Good Citizen Award. This is given to the outstanding senior girl every year on the basis of citizenship, leadership, and scholarship. She has maintained a high average through high school, has served on Student Council, National Honor Society, Dramatics Club, and as co-captain of the girls' basketball team.

ST. PAUL'S

St. Paul's Advanced Studies Program is offered during the summer months to those students in New Hampshire who wish to study subjects not yet offered at their own schools. It is hard and tiring, but at the end of six weeks the rewards make all the work worthwhile. Last summer only one student of Goffstown, Deborah Sadler, attended the program where she studied Modern European History.

GRANITE GIRLS' STATE

Brenda Beetz represented our school at the annual Girls' State at New England College from June 26-July 3. A regular campaign for governor and state officials was held. Delegates gained considerable knowledge in parliamentary procedure and probably most important of all, learned to apply the duties and responsibilities of an American citizen

PROFILE BOYS' STATE

Gordon Knapp and David Benson represented Goffstown at the annual Boys' State held at UNH from June 26-July 3. The boys learned much about the state government of N.H. and came to realize their duty as future citizens to take an active part in it.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society consists of students who have attained a 3.0 average or better throughout their school years and who qualify in the fields of leadership, service, and character.

At the beginning of the year there weren't many members of the Honor Society, but early June found thirteen new members being inducted. The new seniors were Brenda Beetz, Joyce Ignecki, Diane Byron, and Julianne Gibeault. The junior members inducted were Shelley Chamberlain, Beth MacGregor, Marsha Jackson, Gerry Gibbs, Jerry Salo, Margaret Whipple, Rosalyn Holland, Marilyn Stark, and Edward Kilar.

Project Epinal

Last summer Fred Hecker was one of the sixteen delegates from N.H. to participate in a three week tour of Europe. It was a rewarding experience and Fred was able to give many informative talks about his trip and about his brief encounter with French culture to not only the school but to the community organizations which helped to finance his trip.

Youth and Government Assembly

This year five students from G H S attended the YMCA sponsored Youth and Government Legislative Assembly which was held in late March at Dartmouth College and in Concord in early April. What made this year unique was the fact that Kris Durmer was a contender for the governor's office

REDSKINS REACH NEW HIGH

Late in August an enthusiastic group of over 30 boys eagerly responded to the announcement of the beginning of soccer practice. Coach Konieczny, head of the GHS soccer team for the first time, worked the boys hard, but the results were well-worth the effort as the team's stunning victory over the alumni proved. Aptly lead by co-captains Kris Durmer and Pete Wentworth, the boys carried on Goffstown's strong soccer team tradition by completing the regular season with a 13-3 record. As one of the top four teams in the division, Goffstown was eligible to vie for the League Championship.

"Boys, I'm not happy!"

REDSKINS' IMPRESSIVE RECORD TOPPLED BY RAMS

The whole school supported the soccer team as the tournament game approached. At the pep rally the cheerleaders led in building enthusiasm. As a result, Goffstown was well represented when the team faced the Raymond Rams in Raymond. The goalie Bruce Watt made 21 saves during the game and lead in the struggle against the Rams. But in the last minutes of the game Goffstown bowed to Raymond.

Your turn, Pete!

"If he thinks he's sending us out there, he's crazy."

Mr. "K" and Co-Captains Bob and Pete

The Varsity Squad under the capable leadership of Mr. Konieczny had a fair season with eight wins and twelve losses. The co-captains this year were Bob McDougall and Pete Wentworth. The team demonstrated fair play and good sportsmanship of which our school can justly be proud. The high light of the season was the Christmas Tournament which Goffstown hosted. The contests proved to be exciting and Goffstown was honored by having Pete Wentworth receive the Good Sportsmanship Award. Congratulations to Pete and also to Mr. "K" and the team for a good season.

The 1966-67 season is one that no member of the girls' basketball team is likely to forget. Saying that the season brought success is not enough. Under Miss Reed's dedicated coaching, each girl became a working part of a whole, a team, a team with spirit, ability, and the fight to win. "Successful" is often used to describe team records, but this year calls for something more. This team was a winning team, one that went all out to take the Girls' Central N.H. League Championship with an undefeated season.

Mr. Foley and Captain Ronny

The Junior Varsity under the masterful coaching of Mr. Foley demonstrated a good brand of junior varsity basketball this season. The team, led by captain Ronny Weilbrenner, produced an excellent record of seventeen wins and three losses. After a slow start the team found its niche and proved that hard work and team spirit can gain the right results.

The Hall of the Mountain King

This year's theme for the Winter Carnival, Hall of the Mountain King proved to be an interesting challenge for the Carnival Ball Decorating Committee. A unique idea was presented. Each class was appointed a portion of the gym to decorate in accordance with the theme. In this manner, the competitive spirit of the carnival was heightened as each class tried to make its interpretation the most original and festive.

Bleachers, basketball hoops, backboards, and walls became intricate parts of the mountain-cave ballroom.

THE GRAND MARCH

The Freshmen captured the atmosphere of a mountain hall by decorating the doors and walls of the gym with blue and white streamers. Softly glowing blue lights strung along the bleachers served not only as a camouflage, but they created just the right touch of romance.

On the top of each basketball hoop, the Seniors placed gold crowns. From these hung streamers and stalactites.

The Juniors decorated the stage with a canopy of pastel colors encompassing the thrones, providing an appropriate setting for the crowning of the queen and princess.

Thus the whole gym was transformed into a romantic hall—this time in honor of the Mountain Queen.

Many Moons

Many plays are produced each year at Goffstown, but the play Many Moons by James Thurber was unique. It was unique because an outsider directed it, because it went on an extensive tour to distant schools, and because it was sponsored by a government plan.

Under Project T.R.Y. (Theatre Resources for Youth), which is financed by federal funds, various schools were chosen to produce and star in plays that would tour the state. Goffstown was fortunate to be recognized as a dramatically talented school, and under the direction of Mr. Gene Brown a sparkling children's play was excellently performed.

Favorite Authors on Stage

During January a group of enthusiastic Drama Club members got together to start off 1967 with a unique program. Seven students decided to prepare short presentations which covered subjects ranging from the story of St Bernadette to modern poetry. The other four students presented their favorite works by Robert Frost, including "The Witch of Coos", "Death of The Hired Man", "Birches", "Wild Grapes", and several others. This enjoyable program was presented to the community and later to the high school students during a special assembly.

"The Bald Soprano"

"My Alice has one red eye and one white eye . . ."

"Why have you come so late?"

"There is no one at the door!"

"Speaking of that, the bald soprano?"

For the third year in a row, Goffstown High School was rated highest in the New Hampshire Drama Festival, and won the right to participate in the New England Festival in April. "The Bald Soprano" by Eugene Ionesco represented a great challenge to the director, Miss Houle, and her cast. The play, to say the least, is an unconventional work, but the finished product showed, to advantage, the students' dramatic ability and

"Bong, Bong, BONG"

"And my Alice has one white eye and one red eye."

Miss Houle's ingenuity and power. Although, perhaps, the audience didn't fully understand Jonesco's plotless and seemingly incongruent work, no one could help but recognize the talent shown. Two members of the cast, Sue Killam and Fred Hecker, were awarded a coveted place on the All State Cast for their performances in the award-winning production of "The Bald Soprano."

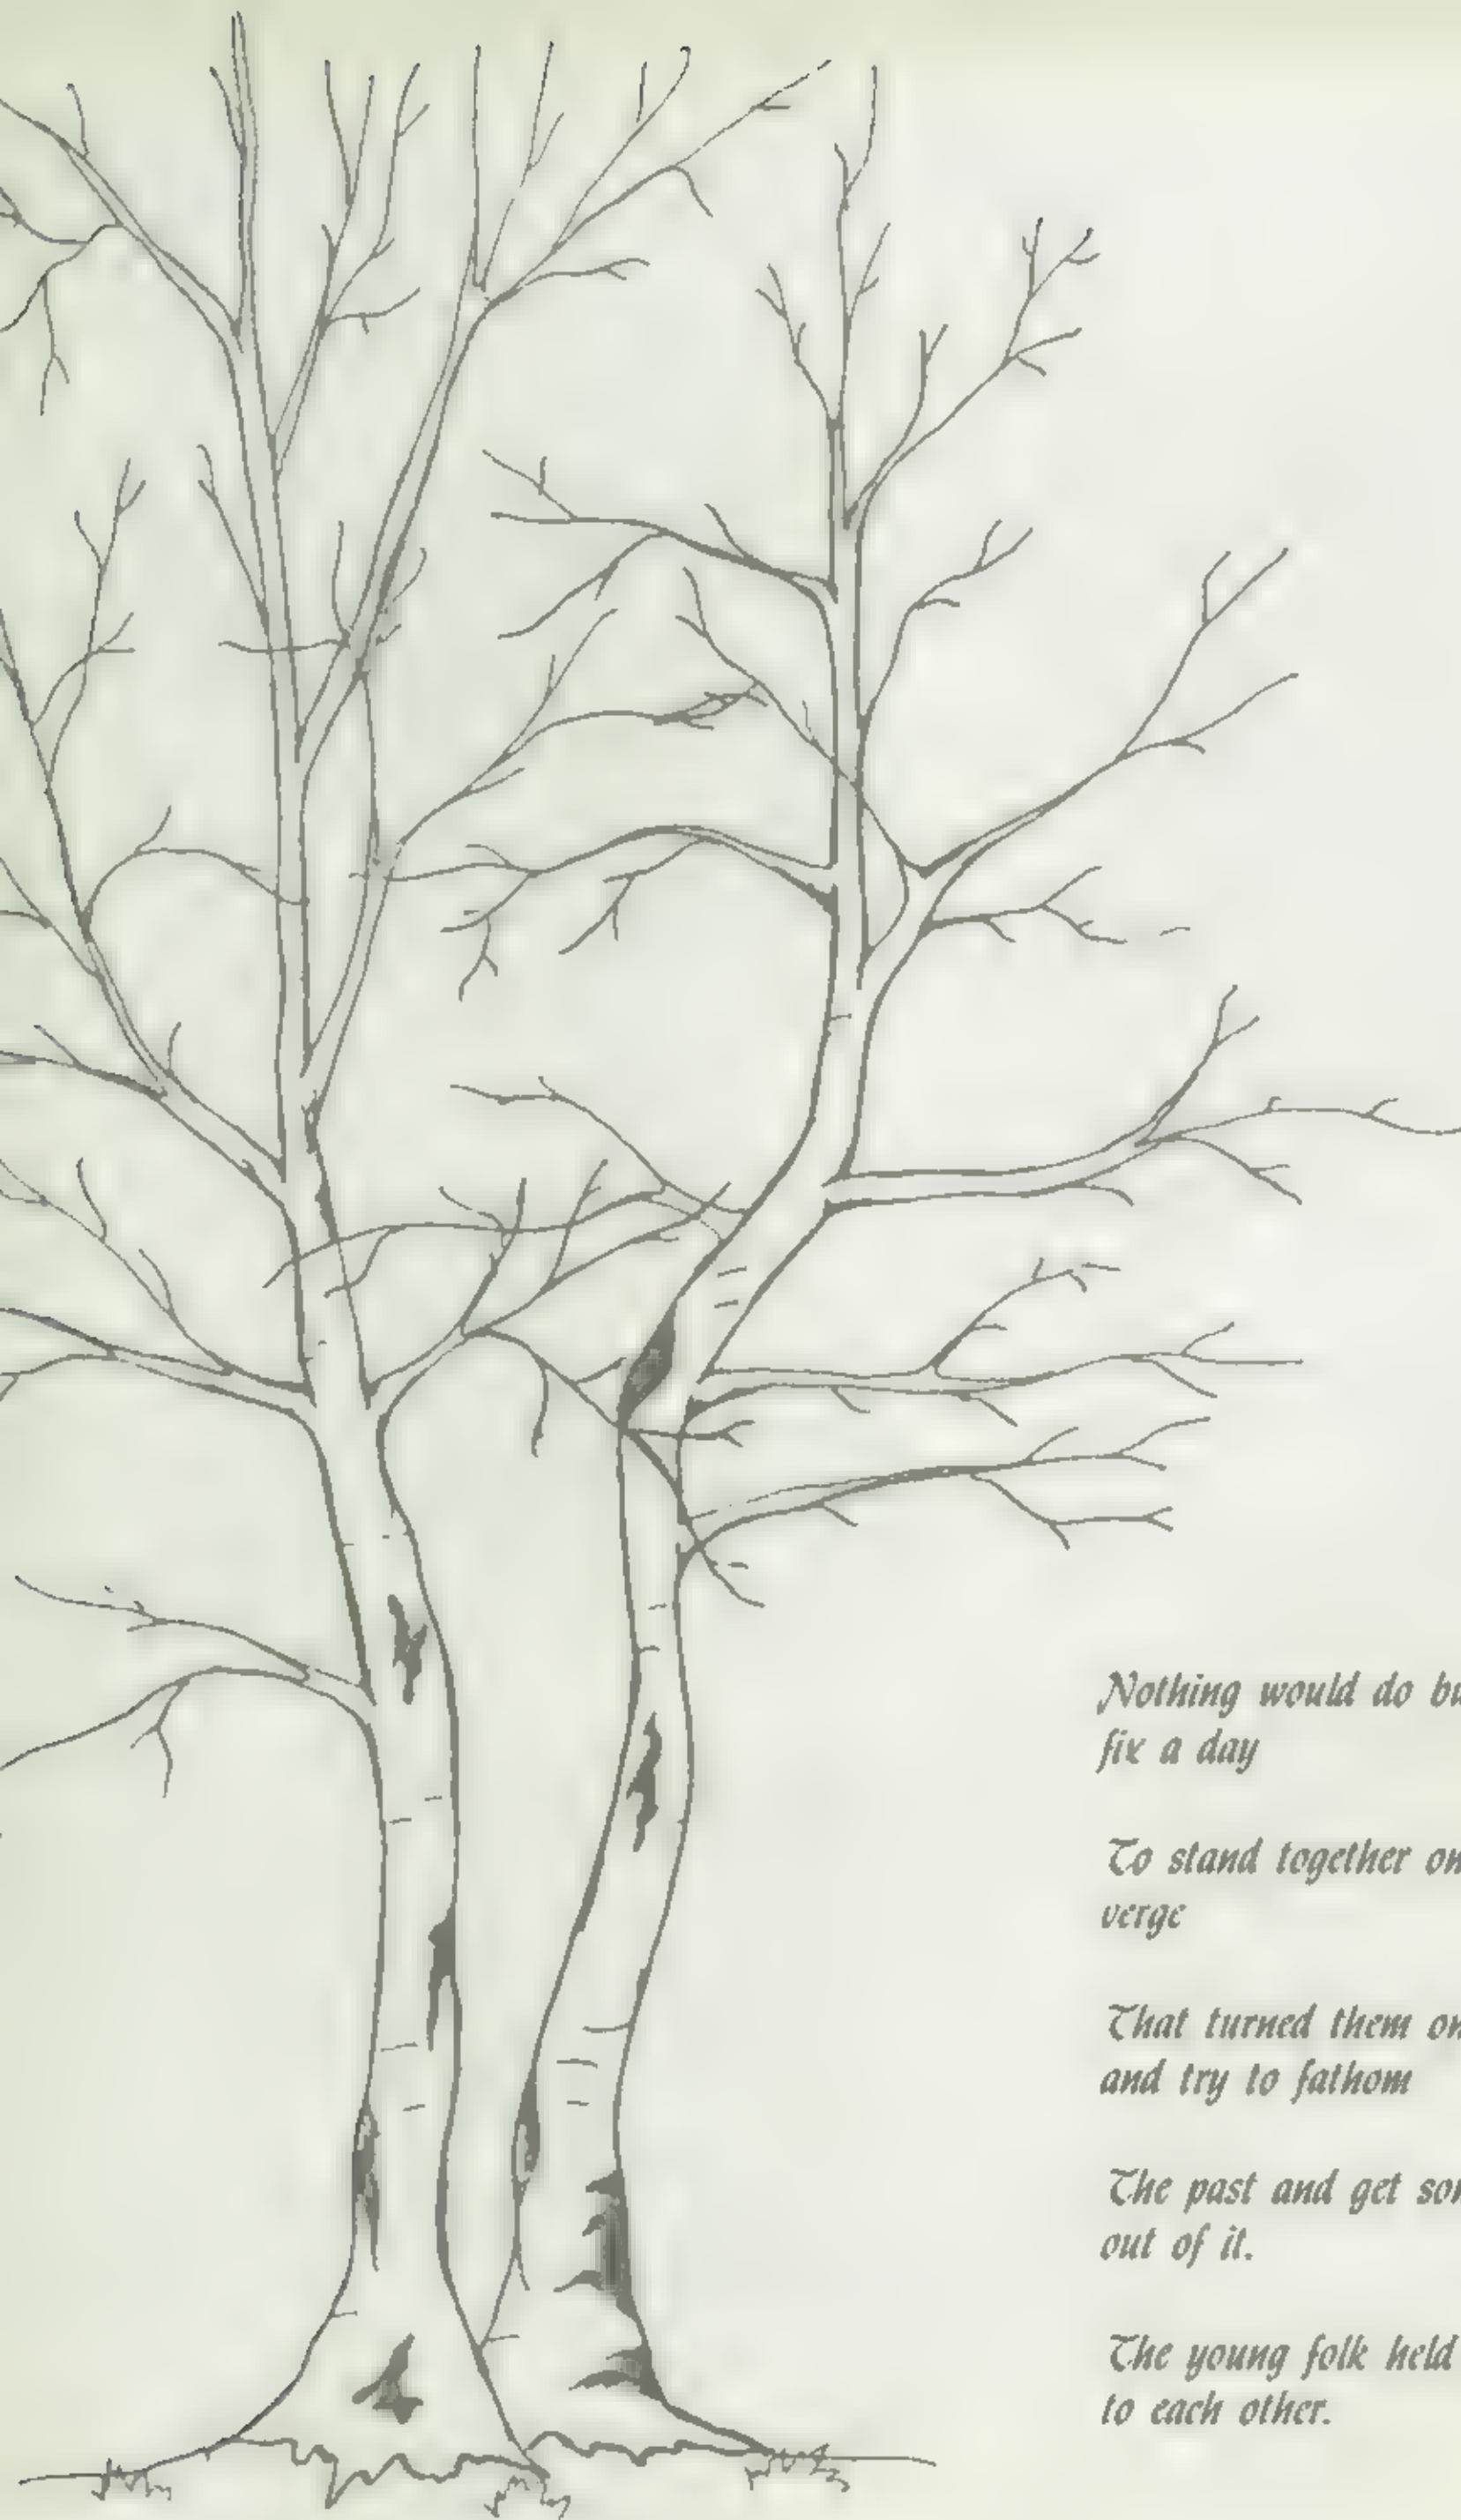

"Thus, when the doorbell rings, some one is always there."

"We have found each other!"

"She always wears her hair the same way."

The Dramatics Club is definitely the largest organization in school. There are over one hundred members who worked hard to present a good year at G.H.S. The Fall Productions included short plays by members of all four classes. Goffstown was chosen to represent the governmental theatre project TRY on tour, and we won first place at the N.H. Drama Festival for the third consecutive year.

The Thespian Society consists of members of the Dramatics Club who have achieved a certain number of points based on their participation in dramatic activities. Although this group is smaller than the Dramatics Club, it is growing along with the active interest in drama at Goffstown.

Student Council

The Student Council is comprised of elected and appointed members from all four classes. The delegates act as a liaison between the student body and the administration. In effect the council is the most important organization in the school.

The duties of the council members are many. They run the bookstore, sell book covers, plan assemblies, post fire exits, arrange school activities, and regulate hall traffic. There are many committees and willing workers to serve on them.

The council's biggest event of the year was the Winter Carnival, which they hold annually. The members themselves set up race courses, regulated scoring procedure, found judges for the sculpturing contest and the carnival ball, and most important—they participated. It is because the members are actively in support of the school that the Student Council succeeds.

Future Teachers of America

The Future Teachers of America is a small organization at G.H.S. Under the direction of Mrs. Langlois they raised money to provide scholarship for one of their graduating members. They worked with teachers at the Maple Avenue School, and they helped to sponsor the Christmas Invitational Basketball Tournament by making hot chocolate and sandwiches for the participants.

Future Nurses of America

The Future Nurses of America is also a small organization in school. The girls helped Mrs. Bockus and Mrs. Bailey in the Nurses's Room during their free periods and they helped keep the medical records straight for the school. All the members are planning to become nurses.

Members: L Beauchemin, P Gray, J Ducharme, President, J Igneczi, Treasurer, Secretary, D Goff, Vice-President, B Lebine

Workers: J. Gibeault, C. Desmarais, L. Tower, K. Elliott, C. Bernard, C. Mudge, A. Lindsay, J. Shreve, J. Igneczi, S. Buzzo, S. Pepin

Office Workers

The office workers give up their study periods to help Mrs. Hale in the office. They answer the phone, type, and do gal Friday chores for Mr. Moulton, Mr. Stevens, and Mr. Lemery.

Athletic Association

The Athletic Association is in charge of running the athletics at G H S. Under the direction of Mr. Konieczny, they sold refreshments and tickets at the basketball games and provided the student body with shakers and banners during the soccer season. Although it is not a large organization, the members do a fine job of giving Gottstown's athletes the support they need.

A A Members: Mr. Konieczny, Advisor: N. Pingree, Assistant Treasurer: R. Judkins, L. Rousseau, Secretary: B. Ackerman, Treasurer: J. McKenna, President: P. Wentworth, Vice-President: D. Rousseau, B. Watt, V. Hawkins

BAND

The Band is one of the largest organizations in the school. Under the direction of Mr. Rausch this past season was their biggest year recently. They sponsored a concert, played at numerous school assemblies, and held a very successful Band O-Rama Day in early March, which was thoroughly enjoyed by the participants.

JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE

This year a new organization was introduced to the school. The Junior Classical League. Although it was a new group, there were many members. One of the projects of the club was the Lupercalia which was held in early March to celebrate the old Roman holiday. The club worked all year to send nine delegates to the national meeting of the organization in Arizona during the summer.

STUDENT LIBRARIANS

The library assistants to Mrs. Duncan are students who give up their study periods to do work in and for the library. It is a continuous job to keep the library up to date. Several of the girls stay until four after school to allow other students to continue their research.

Librarians: D. Marcoux, B. Elliott, A. Lindsay, M. Ouellette, G. Hooper, M. Dodge, Mrs. Duncan, B. Lafond, C. Mudge, S. Binette, B. MacGregor, S. Hall
